

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day

CONFERENCE

SAVE THE DATE - Monday 17 June 2019

Aged Rights Advocacy Service

Proudly presents its 14th WEAAD Conference

'Elder Abuse: Building Trust'

This year's World Elder Abuse Awareness Day (WEAAD) Conference program has been developed with the theme around 'Elder Abuse: Building Trust'. Our vision is a community in which all older people are valued and respected. The conference theme 'building trust' includes our values of integrity, inclusiveness, justice and respect. In the current rapidly evolving area of elder abuse, the conference brings together key stakeholders to focus on the latest information, actions and how you can be an active participant within your community.

Confirmed speakers:

The Hon Stephen Wade – Minister for Health & Wellbeing

Hon. Dr Kay Patterson – Australian Human Rights Commission

Dr Duncan McKellar – Head of Unit for Older Persons' Mental Health Services, NALHN

Jeanette Walters – Director of Intergovernment Relations and Ageing, Office for Ageing Well

Carolanne Barkla – Chief Executive, Aged Rights Advocacy Service

Beverley Lange – Executive Officer, Elder Abuse Action Australia (EAAA)

Detective Chief Inspector Richard Lambert, South Australia Police – Family and Domestic Violence Section of the Public Protection Branch

Andrew Haszard – Operations Manager, The Dementia Centre

Stamford Grand Adelaide, Moseley Square, Glenelg

For more information contact: Doris Gioffre, Conference Convenor
Phone (08) 8232 5377 or email: dorisg@agedrights.asn.au

To register: <https://www.trybooking.com/book/event?eid=464095>