Responding to Elder Abuse - What Service Providers should know

The Aged Rights Advocacy Service (ARAS) Abuse Prevention Program (APP) is facilitating a workshop for service providers who are responsible for addressing issues regarding abuse of older people. This workshop is for those who have already participated in the 'Train the Trainer' Kit. It will cover what to consider and how to respond to abuse of an older person who is living in a community setting.

Key subject areas covered in the Responder Workshop Session:

- ✓ Reinforcing zero tolerance of abuse
- ✓ Working collaboratively
- ✓ Assessing the risk level
- ✓ Options for responding
- ✓ Intervention Principles
- ✓ Privacy and Confidentiality in practice
- ✓ APP case examples for discussion

Next session:	Thursday, 21st October 2021
Time:	1.00pm - 4.30pm
Venue:	Online via Zoom
Cost:	$200.00 per person (incl. GST)

Certificate of Attendance will be provided. Refer to your profession for CPD rules and requirements.
